

Portobello Massage Newsletter

April 2015

Dear lovely Clients

Hello and welcome to the April 2015 edition of the Portobello Massage Newsletter!

Regular readers of this newsletter will know that I'm off to Japan for much of April. It's been a dream for me to go back to Japan since I first went 20 years ago this month. I have to admit that on the eve of going away it feels a bit daunting but that's one of the attractions of going by myself - to see if I can.

What are you itching to do? What would you like to do by the end of the year? How do you want to challenge yourself?

So many clients have been so supportive - thank you. I look forward to seeing you all when I get back. Many clients have made appointments for May but there is still space should you wish to make an appointment for yourself or for a friend.

Positive thoughts

Bizarre travel plans are dancing lessons from God. - Kurt Vonnegut.

I never travel without my diary. One should always have something sensational to read in the train. - Oscar Wilde.

There are no foreign lands. It is the traveller only who is foreign. - Robert Louis Stevenson.

The world is a book and those who do not travel read only one page. - St Augustine.

The groan worthy jokes...or a bit of a puzzle

I'm going to let you think about these first...

What can travel around the world while staying in a corner?

Which word in the dictionary is spelt incorrectly?

If you have me you want to share me. If you share me, you haven't got me. What am I?

What gets broken without being held?

Feed me and I live, yet give me a drink and I die. What am I?
